

CECIL HOWELL DIES IN WEST

Mr. Cecil Howell Dies as Result of Accident in Los Angeles, Cal. Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Howell received a message last Thursday that their son, Mr. Cecil Howell, had been dangerously injured at Los Angeles. This message was followed in a few hours by another announcing his death. The news was quite a shock to his family and friends. Mr. Howell was born and raised in Mt. Sterling and was one of the brightest, brainiest, deserving young men ever reared here. He had been connected with the Southern Consolidated Edison Electric Co., for many years and his death was caused by burns received in coming in contact with a live wire.

He was of a bright, sunny, jovial disposition with the happy faculty of making and retaining friends and his death will be sad news to many friends.

He is survived by his wife, his parents and one sister, Mrs. Samuel Whitehead, of Birmingham, Ala., and many other relatives. To the stricken family we extend our tenderest sympathy and may an ever watchful God lighten the load of sorrow that now depresses them.

MR. TONKIN WEDS MISS M'CLUNG

Former Mt. Sterling Man Marries Beautiful Young Lady of Ashland.

Mr. T. J. Tonkin, Jr., formerly of this city, but who recently moved to Winchester, and Miss Anna J. McClung, of Ashland, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. McClung, Thursday morning at eleven o'clock.

Mr. Tonkin is a valued employee of the Central Kentucky Natural Gas Co., and during his stay in this city made many warm friends. He is a young man of fine intellect and ability. Miss McClung, while known to but few of our people is said to be a lovely young woman and one of the leaders of the young social set in Ashland.

The couple were united in marriage by Rev. Pollott, of the Methodist Church, after which a handsomely appointed breakfast was served the guests. The young people left for Chicago and other points of interest for a two weeks trip after which they will go to housekeeping at Winchester. We extend best wishes.

UNABLE TO INDICT GAS CO.

Lexington Grand Jury Says That Consumers Are At Mercy Of Company

After many complaints had been filed with the Circuit Judge and Grand Jury of Fayette county, and a meeting of the citizens had been called, a lawyer employed, etc., the grand jury made an investigation and reported that under the franchise there could be no indictment found against the company. Several customers have refused to pay their bills and have sued the company. It has been suggested to us that a meeting be called for this city, but after reading the report of the grand jury of Fayette county we cannot see the wisdom of such a step as no good could be accomplished. The gas company has furnished us with a statement showing the average temperatures for the months of January, beginning with the year 1908 with the average deliveries to domestic consumers up to the first of February 1914; they have also given us a letter from W. S. Anderson, head of the department of chemistry of Wesleyan College at Winchester, in which he makes a comparison of the Kentucky gas and Pennsylvania gas and says the Kentucky gas is much the best. In a statement given by H. H. Crawford, of the Pittsburgh Testing Laboratory, he gives a list of ten states in which he has tested the "heat units" developed in natural gases and he places Kentucky first. Both of these tests were made as late as December 16, 1913 and certainly give Kentucky all the best of it, but we have been advised that since DECEMBER 16, 1913 WE HAVE BEEN BURNING GAS FROM WEST VIRGINIA.

The situation is one that should receive careful consideration but as we see the matter now, there is nothing for the consumer to do but pay the bill or take out the gas. We have all the data furnished us by the company and would be pleased to show same to any interested parties.

DISASTROUS BLAZE

In Building Occupied by Advocate Causes Considerable Loss.

As we were about ready to go to press a fire broke out from some unknown cause in the attic above the building occupied by THE ADVOCATE, but as this is being written it is thought that fire is about out and that the principal loss to us will be by water and smoke, the new Linotype, presses, and other machinery being soaked. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is thought it must have caught from an electric wire, as the attic is not occupied. The building which belongs to the well known firm of Chenault & Orear is considerably damaged.

This issue is being printed on the Sentinel-Democrat press, to the owners of which we are under renewed obligations for their many courtesies to us during our troubles. As it would take more than this to discourage us, we hope by beginning repairs just the first minute we can, that by our next issue we will be installed in our own quarters. In the meantime we have made arrangements to take care of our customers and guarantee to give them the same prompt and efficient service, and wish to thank our many friends for assistance rendered.

BUYS STOCK IN MONARCH MILLING CO.

Mr. A. J. Gatewood has purchased the stock in the Monarch Milling Co., owned by Mr. Robt. Collier and will take a position with the company March 1st.

Mr. Gatewood is a genial, courteous gentleman with many friends and will be a valuable acquisition to the company.

ASLEEP IN HER SAVIOR

Years of Suffering Ended Thursday For Beautiful Young Woman.

After years of patient suffering, during which time it seemed as if she had been called on to bear more than her share of pain, the soul of Miss Nell Catlett Wyatt took its flight to the realms above on Thursday morning. She had suffered for more than three years with a disease that baffled physicians both at home and in other cities. She was a young woman of beautiful Christian character and the loss of this ray of sunshine to the stricken family is indeed a heavy one. Deceased was 21 years of age. Funeral services were held at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Wyatt, on Harrison avenue, conducted by Rev. T. W. Watts with interment in Macpherson cemetery. We extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved family.

COLD, BLEAK COURT DAY

Fairly Good Crowd in City Considering the Condition of The Weather.

About 1,500 cattle on the market, the quality was fairly good with some extra young things offered. Trade was slow but that is not to be wondered at as it was a miserably cold day. Prices were very high and few sales were made except by the head. Some extra yearlings sold at 8c, if not more. Heifers at from 6 1/2 to 7c. Cows at from 6 to 6 1/2c, with old cows and rough oxen at 4 to 5c. Small crowd at the pens and a great many cattle left over unsold at night. We caught a few sales and our readers can tell something about the run of the market.

W. L. Byrd sold 11 steers about 800 lb. to Bourbon county party at $65 per head; Wm. Marshall bought 21 about 625 lb. yearlings at $47.50 per head; Sam Keeton sold 48 about 425 lb. heifers to Carter county party at $30.00 per head; same party sold 30 about 550 lb. yearling steers at $44.50 per head; Wm. Anderson bought 21 about 450 lb. heifers of Lee Zates at $30.00 per head; Mike Wilson sold 20 about 425 lb. heifers at $30.00 per head; Haden Jackson sold a bunch of 1100 lb. oxen to Simon Weil, of Lexington, at 5 1/2c; W. L. Byrd sold 25 about 650 lb. yearling steers, (good ones) at $55.00 per head; a good many other sales at about these prices.

MULES

The town was full of mules. Trade was very dull and few sales made. There seemed to be no buyers on hand. The supposition is that they were all at home close to the fire.

One of these car loads, three (3) Buick automobiles, from this train, will on arrival at Cincinnati be shipped to Stone & Flora, local Buick distributors at Mt. Sterling, Ky. Train left Flint, Mich., February 7th, will arrive in Mt. Sterling about February 15th.

EXPRESS RATES

Under the ruling of the Interstate Commerce Commission which went into effect on February 1st, express charges on all packages of over fifty pounds weight were boosted very materially. The announced cut by the express companies was hailed with delight before it was known generally that there was to be a limit in weight. The reductions apply only to packages under fifty pound weight. This was done in order to enable the express companies to compete with the parcel post.

The situation looks to us in this way: The Interstate Commerce Commission has ordered the express companies to cut prices on light weight packages, but gave them the privilege of making up the deficit on the heavier weights.

DIES AT AGE OF 100

Probably the oldest woman in all Kentucky was buried at Log Lick, near Kiddville, Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. Mary Jane Thomas was laid to rest. Mrs. Thomas' age was given by her son, Clifton Thomas, of North Middletown, as over 100 years, and from best information obtained from other people the woman was said to be over 103 years old. Mr. Thomas is now past 75 years old, and in December his brother, Rianza Thomas, was buried at the age of 73 years. Mrs. Thomas' death was caused by infirmities due to old age, and up until a short time ago retained all her mental faculties. She is said to have been the oldest white woman in Kentucky.

HOW TO PREVENT THE TOBACCO SPLITWORM

Transplant the tobacco crop as early as possible in order to mature it before the appearance of the most destructive generation of the tobacco splitworm, advises bulletin No. 59 of the Department of Agriculture, in making recommendation for the control of this worm. When the early infection is very severe, prime off and destroy the infected leaves; destroy all tobacco stubble as soon as the crop is harvested to prevent the breeding of a hibernating generation; clean up and destroy all trash in and around fields and tobacco barns; do not follow potatoes by tobacco if the infestation of tobacco has been more severe in such cases than where different rotation was followed; grow potatoes as far as possible from tobacco fields.

In Cuba and the United States the splitworm is known on tobacco as a leaf-miner only. Only the older tobacco leaves are affected unless the infestation is very severe; and in these, the lower leaves, grayish, irregular blotches are produced, which later turn brown and become fragile so that the tobacco is unfit for wrappers. At Clarksville, Tennessee, where the infection is very slight, the larva in most cases begins work in the "ruffles" along the midrib and they afterward migrate and form mines in various parts of the leaf.

COD LIVER OIL AND IRON

Two Most World-Famed Tonics Combined in Vinol.

Cod Liver oil and Iron have proved to be the two most successful tonics the world has ever known—iron for the blood and the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil as a strength and tissue builder for body and nerves, and for the successful treatment of throat and lung troubles.

Two eminent French chemists discovered a method of separating the curative medicinal elements of the cod's livers from the oil or grease which is thrown away, but to these medicinal elements tonic iron is now added, thus combining in Vinol the two most world famed tonics.

As a body-builder and strength creator for weak, run-down people, for feeble old people, delicate children, to restore strength after sickness; and for chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis or pulmonary troubles we ask you to try Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

WHY DON'T YOU?

A farmer while carrying an express package from a city mail order house, was accosted by a local merchant: "Why didn't you buy that bill of goods from me? I could have saved you the express and besides you would have been patronizing a home store, which helps pay the taxes and build up this locality." With characteristic frankness the farmer asked: "Why don't you patronize your home paper and advertise? I read it and didn't know you had the goods I have here, nor do I ever see your name in the paper inviting one to come to your store."

Under the provisions of the indeterminate sentence law, 250 convicts will be paroled within the next sixty days. The Appellate Court held recently that when a convict had earned his parole, it must be granted. The court says:

"It is the meaning of the statute that a convict cannot be refused a parole after his good conduct has earned it. It is not in the discretion of the Board of Prison Commissioners to refuse it, for he (the convict) is entitled to it as a matter of right."

There is talk of a bill to be passed at this session, repealing the indeterminate sentence law, which was passed by the Legislature of 1910.

FORMER WIFE OF GEN. CLAY DIES

Mrs. Dora Brock Clay Hunt, who gained national notoriety fifteen years ago when she married Gen. Cassius Marcellus Clay, at that time in his ninetieth year, died at her home near Lexington Friday. At the time of her wedding to Gen. Clay, Mrs. Hunt was sixteen years old and Gen. Clay, who was at one time Minister to Russia, mounted a cannon and barricaded his home in Madison county in order to prevent any successful attempts on the part of his relatives to stop the ceremonies.

The girl left Clay several months after the wedding and since that time has been married four times. Clay died in 1905.

THE COST OF ROADS

Writing in Leslie's Weekly about the cost of road construction, Harry Wilkin Perry lays down the proposition that every road built wholly or in part with funds supplied by the State or Federal Government should have a length of life equal to the life of the bonds issued to raise the money to pay for it.

Incidentally Mr. Perry does not believe in building macadam roads, which he says, are no longer suited to the traffic of main highways. He pronounces in favor of concrete as the best and cheapest foundation material, and says, in fact, no other material is needed to make a good road. He gives some instances of the lasting qualities of concrete. In Bellfontaine, O., 2,500 feet of concrete streets put down more than twenty-one years ago shows not to exceed one-half to three-quarters of an inch wear of the surface where the horses travel, and have cost less than $150 for repairs in that time. Four years ago five miles of road was built at Saugerties, N. Y., half of concrete and half of macadam. At the end of two years the macadamized portion had to be completely repaired. The concrete section has been in perfect condition throughout.

The concrete roads in Wayne county, Mich., of which much has been written, cost a little more than $15,000 a mile, this including grading, drainage and culverts. These roads lead out of Detroit and bear the heaviest traffic in the State. "The cost of maintenance of the sixty-odd miles built the first four years did not exceed $1,000 for the entire period, of which less than $300 was for surface repairs to the concrete, whereas the average cost of maintaining and repairing the macadam and other roads in Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New Jersey and New York State for the eight years from 1905 to 1912, inclusive, are calculated to have averaged $608 per mile per year."

California is building cement concrete roads at $7,326 a mile, while New York is paying $11,000 a mile for macadam roads. In Winona county, Minn., concrete roads are being built at less cost than macadam roads can be built, the bids actually running from $1,000 to $500 less per mile, and the cost of the concrete averaging $7,260 a mile, including culverts and everything but bridges. Cuyahoga county, O., has 400 miles of brick roads. They cost $16,000 a mile, but some of them are twenty years old and they have cost practically nothing for maintenance.

Mr. Perry thinks the question of the cost of repairs is more important than that of the initial cost of construction. His advice is, that "whatever type of road construction is decided upon, the one feature that should be considered of paramount importance is "permanency." This advice is sound, and certainly every one will agree with him that a road built by a bond issue ought to last until the debt is paid. It ought, in fact, to last longer, but even concrete roads require repairs after a period of years, and in most instances repairs on all roads are too long delayed.

For the average county, roads which cost from $11,000 to $15,000 a mile are out of the question. There are counties in Kentucky where gravel or macadam roads can be built as low as $2,000 or $3,000 a mile, owing to abundance and convenience of material, but some of those counties are not building any roads.—Courier-Journal.

Regulation Needed

We are informed a number of boys, from twelve to sixteen years of age, students of our local schools, though normal mentally and physically, are making poor progress in their studies and some have actually failed. This is due, we are told, to the fact that these boys are permitted to habitually run the streets at night and do not apply themselves to their lessons as they should.

For permitting this, more blame should attach to the parents than the boys, as boys at that age need parental supervision and since it is evident the parents are not looking after them properly, we think a rigid curfew law conscientiously enforced, would be of material assistance. An active truant officer could also find much to do in our city.

While we presume those in charge of it know best, it looks to us like the time is at hand when bids for the re-construction of the Maysville pike should be advertised for. We hope to see active work begin in the early spring and the thoroughfare completed by early fall.

Rich Land For Sale

1800 acres, very rich, well improved land. 1000 acres in cultivation, 800 in grass, only $35 per acre. 35 head of work mules, plenty of hay and corn go with farm free of charge. The cost of farm can be made from same in two years. Would like for four other men to join with me in purchase of same. Land is in "Black Belt" of Mississippi land and is more productive than the best of bluegrass that sells for $200 per acre.

W. E. Bean,
Mt. Sterling, Ky.

DISSOLVE PARTNERSHIP

The saddle horse firm of Matlack & Shropshire, of Winchester, has been dissolved. This firm has been most successful in the saddle show rings, having developed such winners as Hazel Dawn, Jack Barrymore and others. It is understood that Mr. Shropshire, who is considered one of the best riders in the country, will be connected with a Lexington horse company.

GOOD FISH STORY

Mr. John Weir, of Floreffe, Pa., by a dip net caught a 15-inch bass, Wednesday, whose mouth contained another bass measuring 13 inches. It is unheard of in fishing. The larger bass had swallowed nearly half of the smaller fish and in the struggle the two rose to the surface on Trout Run. Mr. Weir on the bridge saw the battle and seizing the dip net of Mr. W. L. Baldwin, of Tarentum, Pa., lifted the fish out in the presence of the above gentlemen and also of Mr. J. F. Dolan, of Lexington, Ky. Porter photographed the two fish exactly as they were caught. Mr. Weir leaves Friday for Rube Allyn's town, Sarasota. As can be seen from the above, Florida produced other things than fruit and flowers.

Modern Brick Residence

Large Grounds and Stable

Public Auction

Saturday, February 28, 1914

As Agent for Mr. Claude Halley, I will sell at public outcry on the premises, on West Main Street, the handsome two-story residence now occupied by Mr. Halley, the sale to begin at 2 o'clock sharp. This residence is built of the best pressed brick and the lumber used in its construction was of the very best that could be bought. It has a coal furnace in the cellar, with a register in the reception hall, and in every room. The house has a large reception hall, parlor, dining room, kitchen and rear hall on first floor, with large veranda in front and porch in the rear, with cistern at the kitchen door. On the second floor there are three nice bed rooms and sleeping porch, and a modern bath room with hot and cold water at all times. The house is wired for electric lights, with every modern attachment for their quick use. Gas for cooking purposes and also heating. Between the reception hall and the parlor and between the parlor and dining room there are sliding doors, by the use of which the three rooms can be made into one large one. The finish of the residence is perfect, oak and pine, with the stairway one of the prettiest to be seen anywhere. The residence must be seen to be appreciated. The roof of the residence is of tin, and the foundation of the best rock that could be secured. The lot is 75x444 feet, and it is one of the most ideally located in the city, sloping just right from the street, with the residence built upon a rise, making it one of the most attractive in the bluegrass section. There is a new stable on the lot, with two large, roomy stalls, buggy house, and tongue and grooved loft, and hydrant water in the barn, with a water hydrant in the yard, also.

There is no prettier or more modern home in Montgomery county than the residence of Mr. Halley, and situated on the Broadway of Montgomery county, it is one of the most desirable in the State, with the neighborhood as good as can be found in the world. It is seldom that a place such as this one is ever offered at public sale, and it offers a rare opportunity for some one to own a magnificent home under the auctioneer's hammer. Will be glad to show the property at any time, and if you wish further information call on Mr. Halley at the Traders Bank or the undersigned. Terms will be $\frac{1}{3}$ cash, $\frac{1}{3}$ in 12 months, $\frac{1}{3}$ in 24 months, deferred payments to bear 6 per cent. interest and secured by lien on property, or purchaser can pay as much more cash as desired. Possession given within ten days from sale date.

Don't shut up your house, lest the sun should fade your carpet; and your hearts, lest a merry laugh should shake down some of the dusty old cobwebs there. If you want to ruin your sons, let them think that all mirth and social enjoyment must be left on the threshold without when they come home at night. When once a home is regarded as only a place to eat, drink and sleep in, the work is begun that ends in endless degradation. Young people must have fun and relaxation somewhere; if they don't have it at their own hearthstones it will be sought at other and perhaps less profitable places. Therefore, let the fire burn brightly at night and make the homestead delightful with all those little arts that parents so perfectly understand.

Don't repress the buoyant spirit of your children; half an hour of merriment around the lamp and firelight of a home blots out many a care and annoyance during the day, and the best safeguard they can take with them into the world is the unseen influence of a bright little domestic circle. Put home first and foremost, for there will come a time when the home circle will be broken; when you will "long for the touch of vanished hand and the sound of a voice that is still."

BE VACCINATED SAYS STATE HEALTH BOARD

To the Health and Fiscal Officials and People of Kentucky:

Warning Against Smallpox

Disregard of the repeated warning of this board in regard to the danger of a wide spread epidemic of smallpox this winter is indicated by its existence in one-third of the counties of the State. The disease, repeatedly stamped out in many counties, has been re-introduced in the eastern section of the State through continued disregard and violation of the law and of the rules of the Board, requiring that no unvaccinated person shall be employed, on the part of railroad construction companies and other large employers of unskilled labor. Prompt prosecution by county attorneys will cause the enforcement of this rule and will save the counties of the State thousands of dollars.

More than 25,000 cases and 335 deaths have been caused from smallpox in Kentucky since 1898. The care and prevention of this disease has cost our counties and cities $625,650 and the business loss is estimated at $1,500,000. Vaccination, properly done with reliable virus and repeated every seven years, is required by law and no person who has complied with this law has had smallpox in Kentucky. It costs the average man one dollar to be vaccinated and $140 and six to fourteen weeks isolation to have smallpox. Reliable fresh vaccine points will be furnished by this Board for the use of health authorities for $6.50 per hundred, and are available at any time.

Most of our cases of smallpox are mild but at best it is a loathsome disease. It is easy to prevent and it is unlawful not to be vaccinated. In the presence of its present widespread existence in the State intelligent people should not wait for the law to force them to an evident duty. Law abiding people have already or will now be vaccinated. Others should be required to do so by the proper authorities.

By order of the Board.

HEIR TO FORTUNE

John Brady, a negro, who has spent most of the past five years in jail at Maysville, and who is now serving a sentence for stealing coal from trains, was informed by the Mayor of Lockland, O., and an attorney who were in Maysville recently, that his father had died there, leaving an estate of $60,000, Brady being heir to half of it and his brother the other half. Brady will go after it, he says, as soon as he is liberated.

"OFF FOR ALABAMA"

J. Clark and W. P. Kemper have purchased a section of land near Demopolis, Alabama, and will move to it on or about the 1st of March, one carload of their stock having been shipped on last Thursday. The farm is situated in the Eastern portion of Alabama, and while Messrs Kemper did not state the amount paid per acre for the land, they said that land in that section sold from $40 to $75. Mr. Kemper stated that the land would compare favorably with the Illinois land that a few years ago sold for about the same money, the Alabama land is now selling, and which has advanced now to where it is selling from $175 to $300 per acre, and he believes that in a few years that the Alabama land will be as valuable. They will grow alfalfa, corn, oats and raise stock. There is grown there Johnson grass, similar to hay which makes splendid feed and sells readily at $18 per ton.—Carlisle Advocate.

THARP SENT HERE

Mr. Lester Tharp, who for some time has been stationed at Cincinnati as an operator for the Western Union, has been appointed manager of the Mt. Sterling office and has assumed his new duties. Mr. Tharp is a native of this city and a young man of fine ability. He has a large circle of friends here who will learn with pleasure of his return. Mr. J. F. Dyer, who has been temporarily in charge of the local office, has been transferred to the Winchester office.

CARLOAD OF FORDS

Paul Strother, local agent, will receive in a few days the first carload of Fords of his purchase. These serviceable and lasting cars are very popular in this section and many new Ford owners will be seen here this year.

All that I claim for myself is that I am right a part of the time and that is better than to be dead wrong all the time, like some folks I know.

THE REPORTER'S LIFE OF SACRIFICE

Do you know of any occupation that demands and receives so much from those engaged in it as the newspaper business? We admit we do not. The church requires a great deal from the clergy, but poverty is, perhaps, the most serious sacrifice it asks. The practice of medicine at times compels physicians to risk their lives in ministering to the needs of the sick, but because of the perfection of methods and the discoveries made in the prevention and cure of disease danger has been reduced almost to a negligible quantity.

Journalism, on the other hand, insists that those who engage in it shall become its slaves and be ready to sacrifice health, comfort and even life itself. This is a strong statement, but it is not true?

The man engaged upon a great metropolitan newspaper, or even upon the dailies of smaller cities, is always on duty. There is not an hour in the twenty-four when he may not be summoned to the office to meet an emergency that has arisen since he left. He can make no engagement that is not subject to cancellation on a few minutes notice. He is never sure that on the night he goes to the theatre with his wife or sweetheart he may not be compelled to leave in the midst of the most interesting part of the play to take an important assignment.

The reporter is, of course, the one who is called upon to face real danger. Often he takes his life in hand when he attempts to climb the ice-covered rope ladder of a belated Atlantic steamship in the lower bay on a wild winter's night; when he visits a plague infested ship to learn the story of its voyage; when he engages in trailing a murderer through the dark and dangerous passages of tumble-down buildings in the lower East Side, or among the mountains of freight piled in seeming disorder upon unlighted wharves; when he accompanies the police in the raids upon gambling houses or the dens of thieves.

The reporter or correspondent who loves his work, and most of them do, rarely think of themselves when on an assignment, but always of the paper they represent. And so they endure the icy blasts of winter, the scorching heat of a burning summer sun, the drenching storms, the dangers of gun tests, with an enthusiasm and self-denial that is unknown in other lines of business. They go without food, without sleep, without rest, and do it willingly all for the paper they represent. They take pride in their work and, although what they write does not carry their name, they are content as long as the paper gets the glory.

The pay does not begin to be commensurate with the services they render, while their expenses are higher than those of men in other profession. Even the frugal among them find difficulty in saving enough money for carrying enough insurance to take care of their families in case of their death. The most of them lack business foresight. They give everything in them to their employers, and on dying, perhaps the paper does not send a wreath to grace the casket. The reporter stands in much the same position as a soldier—always ready to sacrifice himself and all that belong to him for the news; but the soldier can feel that a grateful country will care for his wife and children. It does sometimes seem to us that those who have no share in the profits they help to create ought in some way be freed from anxious thoughts about the future of dependents for whom every law of humanity should require them to provide.

SELLS FINE FARM

Mrs. P. Bruce Turner, sold her farm of 30 acres, lying one mile and one half from this city on the Grassy Lick pike at public auction Wednesday to Mr. Joe Drennon, of this county. The price paid was $151.25 per acre. The farm is one of the nicest in the county, and is not high at the figure. Possession given March 1, 1914. The household goods and personal property belonging to Mr. Gano Caywood brought good prices.

KENTUCKY SHOWED LOW DEATH RATE

A very satisfactory condition of the public health in 1913 is indicated by the general death rate of 13.8 per 1,000 of estimated population in the registration States and cities, statistics for which the Census Bureau announced recently. The rate for the same territory in 1912 was 13.6, and in 1911 was 13.9 per 1,000.

Of the eighteen registration States Maryland, with 16.3 per 1,000, showed the highest rate; Minnesota, with 10.7, the lowest. Other States' rates were: California, 13.4; Colorado, 11.9; Connecticut, 14.4; Indiana, 12.6; Kentucky, 13.4; Massachusetts, 14.7; Michigan, 13.1; Missouri, 12.4; Montana, 13.0; New Hampshire, 14.1; New Jersey, 14.7; New York, 15.2; Ohio, 13.1; Utah, 11.6; Vermont, 12.6; Wisconsin, 10.9.

Of the forty-five registration cities, Portland, Ore., with 11.0 per 1,000, showed the lowest rate; Memphis, with 22.9, the highest.

Many Kentuckians are Moving TO THE Prairie Section Near Demopolis, Ala.

Alabama prairie lands are superior to the much talked of high priced Illinois prairie. When seeded to alfalfa acre for acre will get a greater return than Illinois does on any of her crops. Our soils are natural alfalfa soils, not requiring either lime or phosphates, while those of Illinois have to be supplied with both to grow alfalfa successfully. Any soil that is rich in the mineral elements (as our section) is not only fine for alfalfa, but will grow large yields of other crops adapted to that region. The Department of Agriculture has made a thorough investigation of our section, soil surveys, etc. They say "that we have the cheapest natural alfalfa lands in America." The Government never misleads you. They are proving on their own farm near here our claims for this great alfalfa prairie.

Alfalfa lands in France, that do not produce any more tonnage than ours, sell for $800 per acre. Alabama is a better place to live and the same class of land can be had at from $20 to $50 per acre. There is no better money crop to use in a rotation to enrich your lands than alfalfa. It pays large dividends while making your lands rich. Stockmen everywhere take off their hats to alfalfa as the greatest feed and admit that alfalfa areas are the favored sections for stock raising and dairymen. Considering the soil, artesian water, the climate, our markets for everything our farmers grow, and the prolific growth of alfalfa, one can't make a mistake in buying our lands. Here let me quote what Prof. Hopkins, the great Illinois soil chemist, says about alfalfa: "If Illinois lands would produce two tons of alfalfa hay per acre per year Illinois lands would be worth $300 per acre." If this is true, what are our lands worth that are growing three, four and sometimes five tons per acre per year? Located in a better climate with mild winters and a long growing season, etc. Our alfalfa has furnished green pastures the whole winter, and was six inches high in January. We know of one field near Demopolis that was cut seven times, season 1911.

The choice lands of Illinois were once cheap; many took advantage of the opportunity and bought them; those that did are now rich. Our lands are now cheap, and are naturally better soils. Do not let this opportunity pass. Our people will welcome the newcomer. The Southern Railway is giving special rates to Demopolis, Alabama.

Come down and invest in this great alfalfa section. After investigating, if you find that we have misrepresented any facts, we will gladly refund your railroad fare. Just a little foresight, and a small amount of cash, invested in alfalfa lands in this section will make you and your children rich.

We have sub-divided 2,500 acres into 80's and 160's, the very choicest of our prairie soil. Fine railroad location and artesian water.

(From the Demopolis, Ala., Times, January 9th.)

A RECORD YEAR—In the sale of prairie lands the C. C. Clay Alfalfa Land Company at this place have made an enviable record in the year just ended. In all this company has disposed of over 20,000 acres of high-class prairie land in the Demopolis section, most of which passed into the hands of desirable Northern and Western people. Many of them have moved into this section to make their homes amongst us, and others will, making good neighbors and building up the country around them. We are reliably informed that this is more land of its class than has been handled by any firm between Okolona, Miss., and Montgomery, Ala., the length of the Black Belt. In the matter of lands between Demopolis and Uniontown this company has sold more to newcomers than is covered by other sales from the Civil War until now.

From the above editorial one can see who is doing the business in "The Black Prairie Section of Alabama." Up-to-date business men accept as a fact that to do business you must give values. We have proven that we have values by our past season's record. The day for the fakir has passed. All prairie land will not grow alfalfa. Have your land dealings with men who are honest, successful, financially responsible and know values. Every purchaser from us during the season of 1912 has a profit in his land and is satisfied. Let us help you make your selection. We have been growers of alfalfa in this section for years, and as to our ability along these lines, refer you to the following experts:

Joseph Wing, Mechanicsburg, Ohio; W. J. Spillman and M. A. Crosby, of the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.; Dr. William F. Hand, State Chemist, Agricultural College, Miss.; W. L. FOUR ECLIPSES IN 1914

Four eclipses, two of the sun and two of the moon are to take place during the present year. The first is scheduled for February 24th. It will be an annular eclipse of the sun, invisible in North America. The only persons who will have an opportunity to view it at all will be the residents in the most southern parts of Patagonia and New Zealand, and they will see it only as a small partial eclipse.

During the second week in March there will be a partial eclipse of the moon, which will be visible in practically every part of the United States and Canada. In August will come a total eclipse of the sun, which will be visible as a small partial eclipse in eastern Canada and the New England States. On September 3-4, there will be a partial eclipse of the moon, which will be visible in the far western part of the United States and Canada.

We do not inherit disease. We may however, inherit a tendency toward disease. The thing then to do is to develop resisting power along that line and make that part just as strong as the rest. If you have a weak point and know it, thank God, for you are then in position to fortify against attack.

MRS. STEWART MAKES ELOQUENT SPEECH

Following the eloquent appeal made to the Legislature last week as a Committee of the whole, by Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart, of Morehead, to blot illiteracy out of Kentucky, the House of Representatives passed by unanimous vote the bill providing for the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission.

Not in years has any speaker been accorded such a demonstration of approval as was given to Mrs. Stewart at the conclusion of her address. She completely swept the Legislature off its feet by her eloquence. Not only did her eloquence appeal to the members but the indisputable facts she adduced were equally as impressive.

When Mrs. Stewart became County Superintendent of Rowan County several years ago the county was one of the highest in the state in point of illiteracy. She invented the moonlight school as a cure. It worked wonders. As a result, out of the 1152 people in Rowan County now old enough to read and write there are but four Rowan County persons who cannot read and write and two persons have moved into the County from Morgan County since the last term of the moonlight school of 1913 making a total of six persons. There are seventeen persons in the county incapable of learning. The total of persons in the county who cannot read and write are twenty-three so that in point of non-illiteracy Rowan County leads the state if not the world. Not only has this system been adopted by many of the counties of the state, but many of the states of the union as well have accepted it as the method of blotting out illiteracy.

After making her speech the members of the Legislature crowded around Mrs. Stewart seeking an opportunity to congratulate her and encourage her. A vote of thanks was expressed by the House and Senate on the motion of Representative Coke, of Logan county for her splendid address. Representative Sausley moved that the regular order of business be suspended and that the bill providing for the illiteracy Commission be put on its passage. This was done without objection so that Mrs. Stewart had the pleasure of witnessing the effect of her thrilling address. It also gave her the opportunity to realize that by eloquence and facts she had accomplished something in legislative history that had never been done before, as the honor of such a proceeding was given to her.

UNIT BILL CHANGED

The Frost county unit bill passed the Senate last week by a vote of 24 to 12. The measure changes the present county unit law in that 25 per cent of the voters of a county can call for an option election, where now it requires 25 per cent of the voters in each precinct in a county. Senator Clay voted for the bill. If this bill becomes a law, and it seems certain it will, practically every county in the State will go dry.

HOW ABOUT IT, SHELTON?

There isn't a finer young fellow or more able newspaper man in the State than Shelton Sausley of the Stanford Interior Journal, but honest Injun, and just between us girls, did Shelton really, truly expect his bill reducing the per diem of himself and his fellow legislators from $10 to $5 a day, to be passed?—Todd County Times.

ISH GA BIBBLE

Myrtle has a peg-top skirt
Slit to her knee.
Made of flimsy crepe de chine
Thin as it can be.
Neck and shoes very low;
You can plainly see
Her silk hose are very sheer—
Sheer audacity.
Myrt a white fox collar has
On her velvet coat.
But it's only in the back;
Quite bare is her throat.
Myrtle has the rheumatiz
In her dimpled knee;
Quinsy in her lilly throat,
Also' pleurisy.
Myrtle has a hacking cough,
And her nose is red,
She has influenza, too;
Stuffy in her head.
Through her fever-blistered lips
Still she gaily smiles;
For she knows she's all dressed
Up in the latest styles.—Exchange.

BABIES CAN'T GO

BY PARCEL POST

Babies are not mailable. The Post-office Department so holds in an edict barring them from the parcel post.

The question arose over a request by the postmaster at Stratford, Okla., for a ruling by the Department as to whether a patron of his office could send a two-year-old child by parcel post from Twin Falls, Idaho, to Stratford.

The postmaster was greatly puzzled because he could find nothing in the regulations covering such a case. So he referred it to Post-office Department. It was the first time the authorities had been asked to rule upon the question and it caused a mild sensation.

A hurried consultation of officials resulted and after referring to the parcel post regulations it was discovered that the Oklahoma postmaster was right that there was nothing in them covering such a case. Second Assistant Postmaster General Stewart therefore decided that all human beings and live animals are barred from the mails.

The one exception, however, is the queen bee, which is the only living creature that can enjoy the privilege of the parcel post.

THE REGIONAL

BANK CASE

Louisville's hearing at New Orleans before Secretaries McAdoo and Houston has been concluded and the committee of Louisville bankers has been given until March 1 to file additional data. The case is not therefore complete, but as it stands it is to be doubted if any other city in the South, with the exception of New Orleans, can make a better showing.

The proposed district, of which Louisville is to be financial center, includes Southern Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, Florida and Northern Mississippi, practically the whole of it reached on the north and south lines followed by trade and no important city in it distant more than eighteen hours from Louisville.

Kentucky last year raised one-eighth of the world's tobacco crop and produced more than one-half of the country's total output of whisky. It paid in internal revenue taxes more than all of the rest of the South. For the same period its manufactured products were more than double that of any other city in the proposed region and its bank clearings more than any other city in the South except New Orleans and some $100,000,000 greater than were Atlanta's.

Louisville is the second largest city in the South in point of transportation has ten railroad systems in addition to the Ohio River.

In a contest with New Orleans the latter would have to look to its laurels. With New Orleans left out Louisville's claim comes first. If the South is to have two regional banks—and both McAdoo and Houston are Southern men—it is difficult on what grounds Louisville will fail to secure one of them.—Louisville Times.

WEDDING OF INTEREST

The marriage of Miss Anna McCord, of Winchester, to Mr. J. T. Trimble, recently of Montana, was solemnized in this city last Wednesday, the Rev. T. W. Watts officiating. She is a daughter of Mrs. Lina McCord and is twenty-three years of age. For the past year she has been employed by the telephone exchange, and by her gracious and pleasant manners has won many friends. They will return to Winchester soon to make their home with the bride's mother until April when they will go to Montana. Mr. Trimble is twenty-seven years old, and a popular and industrious young farmer. The young couple were accompanied here by Miss Maggie McCord, sister of the bride.

She is survived by her husband and five children, all of Seattle, and three sisters, Mrs. J. J. Walsh, of this city, Mrs. T. M. Armstrong, of Lexington, and Mrs. Kate Hannah, of Charleston, West Virginia.

We join their friends in this, their old home, in extending deepest sympathy to the stricken family in their great loss.

CORRESPONDENCE

Stoops

George Warner has been very ill the past few days.

H. C. Ficklin returned Thursday to his home at Waldron, Ind. Henry Williams and Chas. Carpenter, of Buffalo, Ill., were in this section last week looking for stock.

Those who have ice houses were filling them Monday with 3-inch ice.

Sheep men have had fairly good luck with their lambs during the wintry weather.

Some few tobacco beds have been sown.

Mose Cundiff's baby daughter has recovered from an attack of diphtheria.

From appearances moving will be finished by the first of March.

The tobacco crop will not be greatly increased here. An increase would necessitate the building of more barn room, or else should the season be a good one for tobacco, a large amount of unhoused tobacco would result. Mrs. Thos. Satterfield, who was ill last week, has recovered.

Mrs. Wm. Donaldson, who was injured some days ago, is able to be out again.

An immense crowd attended Hugh Grimes' sale Thursday. Everything brought excellent prices, being the best sale held in this section so far. Mr. Grimes will go to Sharpsburg to engage in the hardware business.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

(By Courtney Horton.)

All who will be fortunate enough to be present at the regular chapel period (9:10), next Friday morning, will have the pleasure of hearing what we predict will be a very interesting and educational lecture. Maj. D. J. Burchett, a Civil War veteran and a highly esteemed citizen of our community, will address the student body on "Patriotism" or "Lessons From the Life of Washington." The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Chas. D. Grubbs, President of the Board of Trustees, conducted the devotional exercises in chapel Thursday morning, Feb. 12th.

On Friday morning the ladies of the Chautauqua Circle, were the guests of the Freshman Ancient History class. Interesting papers were read by Mrs. Henry Senieur and Mrs. B. F. Perry on "Alciades" and "Socrates." Such visits are an inspiration to our school, and we hope to have these lovely ladies with us again in the near future.

On Thursday morning Mr. Chas. D. Grubbs addressed the Freshman class on the subject, "Law Courts, Ancient and Modern." Mr. Grubbs is always an interesting speaker and on this occasion gave the pupils many valuable truths. The class is anxiously awaiting his return.

On Friday evening the Camp Fire girls entertained with a "Valentine Party" at their club rooms, I. O. O. F. building. Everything was carried out in harmony with the spirit of the occasion and those who were fortunate enough to be present report an enjoyable time.

After hearing the braying voices of our budding, silver tongued orators almost every afternoon, one is inclined to think that they are working hard for the declamatory contest, which is to take place in the near future.

First in line comes the Freshmen, green as their material may be, they have been making a great headway under their capable and efficient leader and will no doubt cut a figure in the contest. Confidence reigns in their camp. Next comes the all-wise "Sophs," who seem to have suffered some sort of a delusion. They can see nothing but both of their representatives crowned with first honors. Absurd! Absurd! Our old roommates the Juniors, seem to have been carried heavenward by their over-confidence and have no doubt forgotten that the Seniors have representatives. However, we do not wish to insinuate that the Seniors are going to take both prizes, but merely ask that they be given due consideration.

A song and drill recital was given in chapel Friday afternoon by the pupils of the Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth grades. Despite the inclemency of the weather, a fair crowd was in attendance and everyone present enjoyed themselves very much.

No bible contains anything better than this: Honesty is the best policy.
